What we've been up to!

July has been busy month, with lots of new friends joining us! Pre school have shown an interest into building and have been making lots of different structures. Toddlers have shown lots of interest into reading fairy tales and recreating them with toys. Babies have loved all the different sensory messy play including cereal, shredded paper and sand.

Important dates and events.

The nursery will be CLOSED on Monday 29th August- Bank Holiday

On Tuesday 30th August we are asking you to dress up in your child's finest pirate gear to join us for pirate themed day.

Message from Clare Peacock (Nursery Director)

Please remember to make sure you pay your invoice on time to avoid any late charges. There is a 2 month notice period to amend or cancel sessions. A big thank you to all the staff for continuing to do a great job in the recent hot temperatures.

WANTED!

Family photos please! The baby room have made some lovely family pictures to look at during the day. We would like to do this in all the rooms so, please either print off some pictures of close family, friends and pets or email them to me at crawley@littleexplorersnurseryandpreschool.co.uk

And we can make some posters or books.

Reminder!

Preschool and toddlers - please encourage your child to put their labelled drink bottles in the box outside pre school room in the morning.

It is imperative that ALL children wear a sunhat when outside, please make sure your child has one. Please label it too!

Social Media Update

Little Explorers Nursery and Preschool have decided to combine their public Facebook pages. Please join us <https://www.facebook.com/littleexplorersnurseryandpreschool>.

There will still be a separate private page for parents at the Crawley site.

Messages from Caroline (Nursery Manager). The Toddler Room is now fully open and functioning – it's so lovely to see the 2-3's explore their new room. Trish has joined our team and will be based in the Toddler Room. Some of you have already met her, so please introduce yourselves. We had another successful open day on 30th July so thank you if you recommended us to your friends. We are getting busier!
